view is taken a few miles downstream from Chao Lake. The pagoda, about four US stories high, built of red brick, is a landmark and is located amid one story red-brick and tile-roofed school buildings. The pagoda is about one city block from the Roman Catholic Church which was operated by the Spanish Fathers until the advent of the communists. The pagoda is also about one-half mile from the Christian Advent hospital built on a hill above the town. The canal (or river) flows through the gap in the hills in the background towards Wuhu, the port city on the Yangtze. Taken in 1948. 14/406
